PRESENTS

College Savings Planning

Wednesday, October 25

6:30-8:00pm in the Village School Chapel

Please join us and Patrick Logue CFP® as he presents the following topics:

- One year or eighteen? Preparing for the financial burden that is college
- Demystify the financial aid process
- Tips and tricks for analyzing and appealing financial aid offers
- Essential resources such as FAFSA and College Board's CSS profile
- Advanced strategies and so much more!

Mr. Logue's CFP® designation comes with extensive training in financial planning, estate planning, insurance, investments, taxes, employee benefits and retirement planning, as well as in CFP Board's Standards of Professional Conduct, which are rigorously enforced. CFP® certification is the most recognized in the industry for personal financial planning. He has also passed a Capstone Course in College Planning, which places him in the top 1% of advisors in this subject matter.
